

Royal Institution.

17th June, 1814.

At a General Monthly Meeting of the Members of the Royal Institution, held the 6th instant, the following Amendment of the Motion proposed for consideration on this day having been carried in the affirmative,

Resolved,

That all Persons interested in the Welfare of the Royal Institution be invited to contribute a Sum not less than Five Guineas, which it is presumed would not only pay off the present Debt and Loan, but also provide a Fund that would effectually secure the Institution from the recurrence of any embarrassment in future.

It was then moved, seconded, and carried, that a Subscription be immediately opened, which was accordingly done.

JOSEPH FINCHER, Clerk,

for THOMAS HARRISON, Esq. Sec.

At a Meeting of the Managers of the Royal Institution, held the 13th instant,

Ordered,

That a List of the "Benefactions to the Fund for discharging the Debts of the Royal Institution, and for providing for its future support," be printed and sent round on the two next Saturdays to the Members and Subscribers.
