

D^r Sir

Dublin, March 25th 1711

I received a letter from my Brother the other Day, in which he informs me you are returned to London, which I was happy to hear, I am also obliged from my situation at present, to apply to you for a little assistance, as my late fit of Illness and no friend near, has reduc'd me to the greatest Distress, and if it should meet your approbation, to send me a few pounds to alleviate my present Circumstances, my health being still impair'd, and my little work to be done, it would confer the greatest obligation and Thanks from me, and would be of the most essential service to me at the present moment, and ~~what~~ what you may please to advance, will no doubt be paid you again by my Son as before.

I remain
Your most Obedt^l Servant
Joseph Rawlings

Brother I have 13 pounds remaining on for Bill worth by a Roges in the purchase and I have money to it with out going to draw and not having to a

in a
the
to for give and to at
Bro
you
the

75
hope in god you shall be Come if not I will try the waters at a what that will do Brother I was very sorry I could not see you win at Oxford But you was gone to London Brother I shall be glad if you will go to Mr Hares watchmaker in Grenville Street neare Brooks Street Holborn and be so good as to ask him if he can from John Rawlins or who

Let them

Conclude your Loving Brother and Sister Jos^{ph} & S^{arah} Rawlins

Please to meet for me at the Angle in Ship Street Devizes with

PS Brother
Sent my wife Down to Leicester to see her another